THE LAST LECTURE

A Faith-Based Discussion Series Based on the National Bestseller

By popular demand, we are happy to offer a second book discussion series for three weeks during June. This time, we'll be reading The Last Lecture, by Randy Pausch. Fr. Tom, Rachel Thelen and Nick Borchers will lead the discussion series on Tuesday mornings from 9:00am-10:15am and again in the evening from 7pm-8:15pm, beginning on June 16th.

Each session will include a brief presentation, prayer, and small group discussion questions exploring the various chapters of the book. We are happy to provide a copy of the book for $13.00 per copy. If you already have the book, there is no charge for the sessions. Pre-registration is only required for those who would like the parish to purchase the book, yet others are encouraged to pre-register as well! Please complete and return the registration form below at your earliest convenience.

A little about the book:

A lot of professors give talks titled "The Last Lecture." Professors are asked to consider their demise and to ruminate on what matters most to them. When Randy Pausch, a computer science professor at Carnegie Mellon, was asked to give such a lecture, he didn't have to imagine it as his last, since he had recently been diagnosed with terminal cancer. But the lecture he gave—"Really Achieving Your Childhood Dreams"—wasn't about dying. It was about the importance of overcoming obstacles, of enabling the dreams of others, of seizing every moment (because "time is all you have...and you may find one day that you have less than you think"). It was a summation of everything Randy had come to believe. It was about living.
